KOFAC International Conference on Science and Creativity - Seoul

2015-01-30

Dr. Katy Börner gave a keynote talk at the KOFAC International Conference on Science and Creativity held December 4-5, 2014 in Seoul, South Korea. The conference theme was “Creative Space and Content make Creative Culture.” In addition, she brought the Places & Spaces: Mapping Science exhibit to the conference. The display (which celebrated its tenth year and 100th map in 2014) included map descriptions translated into Korean.

The conference was covered by several Science Times articles in Korean:
